Young, loud and snotty

Under the banner title 'Hit The Right Note', Our Price Records' battle of the bands competition got so many entries that they had a special Metal heat at The Marquee. MEANY went along and met the contenders...

After a night of sweaty hell, heat winners Krunch! and Preacher John qualified for the semi-finals, the Johns eventually making it to this week's final Krunch!

FROM? (In turn) San Francisco, Bow, Aubervilliers - a small village in France, and one was born somewhere between Antigua and Leicester (Uh?! - on an aeroplane, or something?)

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR SOUND? Krunchy!

WHY DID YOU ENTER THE COMPETITION? As a fluke. For money, alcohol and men. We got 60 quid, got some beer and well. (laughs)

WHAT HAVE YOU GOT THAT THE OTHER BANDS HAVEN'T GOT? Pussies and tits. Nice little faces.

WHAT WOULD SUCCESS MEAN TO YOU? Liberation, a new drum kit, everything - and we'll stop at nothing to get it.

Preacher John

WHERE ARE YOU FROM? Belfast.

HOW WOULD YOU DESCRIBE YOUR SOUND? Irish Rock 'n' Roll. Just Rock...write Rock 'n' Roll with a wee Irish tinge to it.

WHY DID YOU ENTER THE COMPETITION? It seems to be the only way to get noticed. Very few bands get anywhere playing their own music back home in Belfast. We wanted to get over here to play and the only way was to get involved in this competition. We hope to win it.

WHAT HAVE YOU GOT THAT THE OTHER BANDS HAVEN'T GOT?

Balls. We're just four musicians that went out and did it, we didn't think about it, we just enjoy playing Rock music. We're not posers like half the bands kicking about. We reckon we play wild Rock music and that U2 are the second best band to come out of Ireland!

WHAT WOULD SUCCESS MEAN TO YOU? An end to playing poxy bars. Some support from the press and radio. Playing more nights than Led Zeppelin at Madison Square Garden, gigs in front of punters, that's what it's all about.
